IMPORTANT NEWS QUICKLY TOLD

The Latest Gleanings From All Over the State

THINGS SEEN AND HEARD

Lexington.—Miss Nell Brokenborough Owen, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Owen, of Lexington, Va., has been chosen Princess of Rockingham county.

Harrisonburg.—Daniel Sine, 20-year-old farmer, of Page county, was almost instantly killed when he was struck by lightning, which entered his home over a telephone wire. Several other persons who were in the room at the time were uninjured.

Winchester.—Damage to commercial apple orchards by the recent frost appeared confined to early varieties, while late fruit, forming 90 per cent of the local output, came through with slight injury, according to corrected reports tabulated by State orchard experts stationed here.

Petersburg.—A boxing bout between girls of the Hopewell High School featured a boxing and wrestling carnival held in the high school there. The fair leather pushers, staging the first bout of its kind in this section of the State, were clever and staged as good an exhibition as the boys.

Lynchburg.—John R. Brame, of Richmond, has been awarded contract for handling the mails from post-office to the railway mail transfer here for four years beginning July 1. The bid beat the Long Transfer Company, of Lynchburg, which has had the contract for four years.

Winchester.—Postmaster General and Mrs. Harry S. New were among a large number of Washington motorists here for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. New made their headquarters at a local hotel, and made trips to many points of historical interest along half a dozen hard-surfaced highways in this section of the Shenandoah Valley.

Harrisonburg.—A composite comparative financial statement of the ten banks in Rockingham county and the city of Harrisonburg shows that deposits have increased $723,667.92 in the last year, and $126,286.83 during the last three months. Within the last three months the loans and discounts increased $2,916, against a gain of $126,286 in deposits.

Fredericksburg—Spotsylvania Construction Company has completed the work of pouring concrete on the Massaponax line of the Richmond-Washington Highway, joining the new road to the concrete on the Spotsylvania courthouse road. The entire route from Thomas' Store to Massaponax will be opened to traffic about May 10.

Blackburg.—Robert B. Skinner, of Petersburg, has been elected editor-in-chief of the Bugle for next year, and J. F. King, of Radford, business manager. F. W. Holly, Charlotte, N. C., has been chosen president of the Junior-Senior Prom; E. R. Gaines, of Culpeper, leader, and E. S. Lay, Wytheville, secretary-treasurer.

Danville.—Herbert Stanley, of Franklin county, must serve two years for burning a barn belonging to Robert Pinnell, the offense being committed two years ago. Judge Turner Clement overruled a motion for a new trial, whereupon the defense attorney indicated that an appeal to the Virginia Court of Appeals would be taken.

Staunton.—Colorado, which next year will celebrate its golden anniversary as a State, and California, will be in the fight for the 1926 convention of the National Editorial Association, which meets June 1, 2 and 3 in the auditorium of this Jefferson Hotel, Richmond. H. C. Hotaling, executive secretary of the association, report, that registration for the Richmond convention indicates a record-breaking attendance.

Lynchburg.—During March the Lynchburg Cow-Testing Associate tested 566 cows producing milk for the Lynchburg market, the average for this number of cows being 453 pound of milk and 18.9 pounds of butterfa A grade Guernsey owned by Igle Farm, led the month with 1,37 pounds of milk and 56.1 pounds o butterfat. W. H. Tucker, with eigh teen cows, led the herd production in fat production.

Fredericksburg.—The property of E. Richard Campbell, victim of the brutal murder last summer, for which two negroes died in the electric chai last fall, was sold at auction. The small sale took place at the home place, near Penola, Caroline county. H. L. Beale, special commissioner, was in charge of the sale. The home place, which included a pond, was sold for $15,000 to W. R. Jeter, of Penola. The remainder of the property, sold to several individuals, brought about $3,500.

Blacksburg.—First Lieutenant Thos. R. Aaron, United States Army, has been assigned by the War Department to the Virginia Polytechnic Institute for the next school year. Lieutenant Aaron will be instructor for one of the ROTC units and assumes his duties here in September.

Winchester.—A modern fireproof hotel to contain about 100 guest rooms is to be erected at an early date at Lexington, according to an announcement made by William H. Herrell, one of the promoters of the enterprise. Mr. Herrell, who is a realty broker, said an option had been secured on an attractive site.

Danville.—Local police detectives have just exposed one of the most extensive cloth robberies, revealed here with the recovery of some 1,500 yards manufactured by a local textile corporation, and which have been peddled about farmhouses as far as the Henry county line. Doss Wilson, William Talbott and Dillard Hopkins are in jail charged with the theft.

Clifton Forge.—Ralph Lane, a son of Mrs. H. F. Readdy, who, a few days ago, injured his knee while playing baseball, is critically ill in the Chesapeake and Ohio Hospital. Nothing was thought of the injuries at the time, but his knee continued to get worse and he was moved to the hospital, where it was discovered that infection had set in.

Luray.—Daniel Sours, 30, a farmer living five miles southeast of Luray, was struck and instantly killed by lightning during an electrical storm. Mr. Sours was visiting at the home of Mrs. Fox, a neighbor, and the lightning is supposed to have run in on the telephone wire. Mr. Sours is survived by his wife and two small children.

Fredericksburg.—The old town of Fredericksburg, which Washington himself spoke of as "the town of my growing infancy," will turn back the hands of time 150 years when, henceforth, the home of his beloved and only sister, Betty, and Colonel Fielding Lewis, maker of the first guns for the Continental Army, will be dedicated with impressive ceremonies the afternoon of May 9.

Fredericksburg.—The Business and Professional Women's Club of this city has elected the following officers: Miss Bessie Hedin, president; Miss Katherine Long, vice-president; Miss E. Carlton Carpenter, secretary; Mrs. George S. Goodman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Emma O. Eubus, treasurer. The club will be represented at the sixth annual State convention in Alexandria in May.

Berryville.—Corn planting is early this year. Usually May 10 is considered about the time to plant, according to local inhabitants but the unusually early spring has speeded up the work so that many farmers have the entire crop in the ground. There have been times in the memory of older inhabitants when corn planting was done earlier than usual. There were few times, however, and this year's record is unique in a way.

Danville.—W. E. Gardner, one of the leading figures in co-operative marketing organization and director for this district, has reconsidered his recent action in withdrawing from the Danville Chamber of Commerce and is still a member. He announced his severance of relations not long ago, the same day that the directors of the Chamber of Commerce indorsed the buying policies of the Imperial Tobacco Company and the American Tobacco Company.

Harrisonburg.—The will of the late Albert Peter Eller has been probated in the clerk's office here. The sum of $2,000 is left in trust to the Cross Roads' Church to be applied to the pastor's salary, and $1,000 is left for the upkeep of the parsonage. The building fund of the Harrisonburg Presbyterian Church is to receive $500 and $1,000 is bequeathed to the Rockingham Memorial Hospital. Mr. Eller also gave $500 to the proposed industrial school at Massanutta Springs shortly before his death. The estate is valued at $40,000, the bulk of which goes to Fox D. Eller.

Staunton.—Staunton and Augusta counties have been allotted a quota of nineteen in this summer's Citizens' Military Training Camp program. To date seven young men have made application for the outing in July with all expenses paid by Uncle Sam. All seven are from Waynesboro. Major C. S. McNeill, U. S. A., assigned to Fishburne Military School, associate county chairman for Augusta, is endeavoring to have the remaining 12 vacancies filled at an early date. The dates for the camp are from July 1 to July 29.

Harrisonburg.—The athletes of the Broadway High "and graded schools carried off the honors at the annual track and field meet of the Rockingham Literary and Athletic League at the fair grounds here. They made a total of 165 points in forty-one events for the senior and junior boys and girls. Bridgewater, winners in other years, had to be content with a tie for second with Mount Clinton, which sprung a surprise in piling up 79 1-2 points. Dayton finished fourth with 51 points.

THE BENEFITS OF TOTAL ABSTINENCE

LESSON TEXT—Dan. 1:1-20.
GOLDEN TEXT—Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank.—Dan. 1:8.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Four Brave Boys.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Benefits of Total Abstinence.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Sound Mind and a Sound Body.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Some Benefits of Total Abstinence

I. Daniel and His Companions in Captivity in Babylon (vv. 1-4).

They were carried away to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar in the first siege of Jerusalem. At the command of the king certain choice young men, including the seed of the king and of the princes, were carried away that they might be made skillful in wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, under standing science so that they might be trained to stand in the king's palace.

II. The Trial of Daniel and His Companions (vv. 5-15).

1. Their Conscience Tested (v. 5).

By the appointment of the king, a daily portion of the king's meat and of the wine which he drank was arranged for them. This was contrary to the custom among the godly Jews. Being contrary to the Jewish custom, they could not conscientiously partake of them. It should ever be borne in mind that conscience is the groundwork of human character.

2. Their Change of Name (vv. 6-7).

Among the Hebrews most significant names were given to children. Daniel means, "God is my judge." The significance of this name was that all the problems of life were submitted to God for His decision. God was made the arbiter of his life. This was the secret of Daniel's life. No doubt this expresses the purpose of his parents in giving him the name. His name was changed to Belteshazzar meaning "Bel's protege," the one whom the chief god of the Babylonians favors. Hananiah means, "gift of," or "beloved of Jehovah," and his name was changed to Shadrach which signifies, "His mind by the sun god, Rak." Mishael means, "who is as God" and his name was changed to Meshach meaning "who is like the goddess Shesach, the gentle one." Azariah means, "Jehovah is our help," and was changed to Abednego which means, "the servant of Nego." Back of the change of names was the attempt of Satan to wipe out the name of the true God, and have these young men lose their separation and thus become assimilated among the heathen.

3. Their Religious Life (v. 8).

This involved their refusal to eat meat and to drink wine which was contrary to their teaching. In the case of Daniel, at least, it also involved praying three times a day.

4. Their Courtesy (vv. 8-15).

Daniel seems to have been the spokesman for the company. Although Daniel's heart was fixed, he did not fail to be a gentleman. He request ed to be excused from this meat and drink in order that he be not defiled Christians should learn from this to be courteous even in times of great trials. God had brought Daniel into favor and tender love with those who were over him.

III. The Success of Daniel and His Companions (vv. 16-21).

1. Their Physical Health (vv. 14-16).

A test was made for ten days, and it was shown that they were fairer in countenance and fatter in flesh than those who indulged in the king's meat. Godly and temperate living pays. It is obligatory upon God's children today to conscientiously abstain from that which is contrary to His law. It means total abstinence from intoxicating liquors, and everything which would injure the health.

2. Mental Growth (vv. 17-20).

Daniel and his companions were found to be ten times superior to their comrades in matters of wisdom and understanding. It is always true that those who abstain from indulging in the use of strong drink have clearer minds and are mentally better equipped for their work than those who indulge.

3. The Social and Political Preferment (v. 19).

They stood before the king.

4. Their Temporal Influence (v. 21).

They were all advanced to positions of influence and Daniel became president of the College of Wise men, and the prime minister of the nation.

5. Spiritual Insight (v. 17).

Because of Daniel's loyalty to God visions embracing the entire history of the world came to him and Nebuchadnezzar's dream was revealed.

Do Right

Do right, and God's recompense to you will be the power of doing more right. Give, and God's reward to you will be the spirit of giving more. Withhold from God and the accounting will follow.

Society

Society is a more level surface than we imagine. Wise men or absolute fools are hard to be met with; and there are few grades or dwarfs.—Harriett.

BACKACHE

Mississippi Lady Benefited by Taking Cardui.

"I took Cardui for backache and a weakness, and soon my health was strengthened and helped me," says Mrs. Mattie Hurt, of Quitman, Miss.

"Before the birth of my children, when weak and nauseated, I took Cardui. After the birth of my children, when just getting up to do my work, I took a couple of bottles of Cardui and it never failed to strengthen me and help me when backache.

"I seemed to enjoy my food and my back would feel stronger. I don't believe I could have kept going had it not been for Cardui and the strength it gave me.

"When change of life came on I got down in bed. Life seemed to be just a terrible drag. I did not have strength to or anything. My back hurt. My limbs hurt. I was so nervous I couldn't rest.

"I knew what Cardui had done, so as I had used it, and it did just as it had done before—strengthened me up."

FOREST VIEW

The farmers of this community have begun to plant corn and are preparing their tobacco land. Tobacco plants are being destroyed by the fly or flea.

Miss Mattie Mae Nash gave a birthday party last Saturday night. Games were played out on the lawn in the moon light. Ice cream and cake served and everyone reported a good time.

Mrs. R. W. Martin has been quite ill the past ten days at her home. Her daughter, Mrs. B. C. Sims, nursed her last week and her daughter Mrs. M. W. Hunter, near Gladstone, is with her this week.

Mrs. Annie Odor and sister, Miss Bessie Martin, are at home something better.

Mrs. Fetna Marshall is better after a severe spell. Her son Collier Marshall, of Ohio, is with her now.

E. B. Marshall left for Charleston, W. Va., last Thursday, where he expects to find a position and if so they will leave Forest. How we do hate to give up this fine couple.

Mrs. Loyd Nash is better after a spell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ford, Mrs. J. B. Marshall and Mrs. Fannie Harvey of Campbell, visited Mrs. Fetna Marshall and Mrs. Mrs. R. W. Marshall Sunday.

Miss Pauline Marshall, who has had a position in Richmond, is at home now.

North Side

Gentle refreshing showers the past week and "Jack Frost" several mornings, but as yet the gardens are not hurt.

Mrs. Walker Carnefix, who has been confined to her bed for about eight months is improving. We hope she will soon be out again.

Hugh Martin and Miss Lorene Reynolds motored to Lynchburg Sunday and spent the day with their friend Miss Ayers.

Misses Evelyn O'Brien and Colyer Abbitt have returned to their homes here from Thaxton, where they taught the past winter. Miss Isabel O'Brien has also returned from her school at Bent Creek.

We are glad to say that Mrs. C. E. Lewis who has been under treatment in Lynchburg for sometime, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Reynolds, Mrs. Annie Robertson and Herbert Carnefix visited friends in Madison Heights Sunday.

We regret that Mrs. Nancy Kyle who is ill at the home of her daughter in Lynchburg, is no better and little hope is held out for her recovery. She has the sympathy of this community where she spent most of her life.

Herbert Carnefix left a few days ago for Roanoke, where he hopes to get work.

Our dear Bro. Rev. J. H. Gordon has kindly consented to preach the baccalaureate sermon for the Vera school on the 10th day of May at New Hope church and I am sure we will all be glad to welcome him back to Vera once again.

Listen Bro. Editor what has become of Buckingham correspondent that once added so much to your valuable paper?

Woodland

Farmers are complaining of the flies destroying their plant-beds and we fear the tobacco crop will be short. Much corn has been planted and the wheat crop is looking good.

Boxie Poe had the misfortune to lose a fine mule Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Watt Harvey and children spent the week-end with relatives in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Johnie Oaks of Charlotte, has returned after spending a few days with her brother, C. R. Woodson.

Helen, Lucy, Twyman and Allen Coleman visited William and Lelia Cheatham Sunday.

Men and Money Make this Bank Secure.

THERE are two ways of measuring the strength and standing of a bank. In the first place money resources—capital and surplus—give it financial strength.

In the second place—and perhaps even more important—the men, the officers and directors. They give the bank character, determine and execute its policies.

This is a strong bank, a helpful bank because it has ample resources, and a personnel of proven character and ability.
